

Writing 2007, Grade 8

Writing Composite

Idaho NAEP Snapshot

Volume 2007, Number 28

On the Writing 2007 assessment of the National Assessment of Educational Progress, students were asked to demonstrate their ability to generate first-draft writing with ease, clarity, and precision in the three primary purposes of writing -- narrative (tell a story), informative, and persuasive. Students wrote for 50 minutes, with 25 minutes allowed for each of two prompts. Writing scale scores range from 0 to 300, where 114 is Basic (Grade-level Expectation), 173 is Proficient, and 224 is Advanced.

Demographic Group Comparison on Writing Average Scale Score, Grade 8

♦ In 2007, five demographic groups of Idaho eighth grade students had an average scale score on the Writing assessment that was not significantly different from that of their national counterparts: all students (ID-154, US-154), male students (143, 144), female students (167, 164), Hispanic students (136, 141), and students from low income families, i.e., students who qualify for free or reduced price meals in the National School Lunch Program (144, 141).

♦ In 2007, two demographic groups of Idaho eighth grade students had an average scale score on the Writing assessment that was lower than that of their national counterparts: White students (ID-157, US-162) and students who are not eligible for free or reduced price meals in the National School Lunch Program (160, 164).

Comparisons based on statistical tests (.05 level) that consider sample size, magnitude of difference, and standard errors.
